Today at about 1400 hours, Ion Bank (in the old Lowe's Plaza) was robbed by a male described as a short Asian male in his mid- to late-twenties. The male displayed a weapon and demanded money. He made off with over $5,000. Information developed at the bank led to a very good description of the suspect and his vehicle. The vehicle was spotted on Bee St. at about 4:00 p.m and was pulled over as the suspect was returning home. All but a very small amount of the money was recovered in his possession as well as a pellet gun under his seat. Also, he matched the description of the suspect on the bank's video.
